

Sister Essence Cash

Sister Essence Cash accepted Christ in 2009 at the age of ten. She was baptized along with her God Mother, Ebony Gray at Wheeler Avenue Baptist Church in Houston, Texas.

Sister Cash had several good friends in her local community and she was invited to be a part of their youth program at Lakeside United Method Church's where she was able to grow closer to Christ, volunteer in the community, and go on mission trips. She was asked to delivered the message one year for Youth Sunday.

At the University of Texas, San Antonio, Sister Cash became a member of the Impact Movement. Impact equips black students to become disciples of Jesus Christ and integrate their faith into every aspect of their life.

Sister Cash graduated in the spring 2022, majoring in Kinesiology-Exercise Physiology with a minor in wellness. She is currently a braille transcriber and material specialist in her local school district, enabling students with limited to no eyesight be successful in their academic studies.

Sister Cash loves the Lord and doesn't mind sharing her testimonies of the times the Lord has delivered her from the hands of death. In 2022, she was asked to join the leadership team of ADOR.

Sister Cash's favorite scripture is 2Timothy 4:7, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:" She boldly declares that "she is clothed with strength and dignity, and she laughs without fear of the future." (Proverbs 31:26)

Sister Cash resides in Humble, Texas and continues to be a member of Wheeler Avenue Baptist Church in Houston where Dr. Marcus D. Cosby is the lead pastor.
