

Elder Ordell McClendon

Elder Ordell McClendon is the wife of Pastor Johnny D. McClendon. They have been married for 32 years and have a 28 year old son, Brosnan, who has 2 daughters, Noa and Lauryn.

Elder McClendon is the Director for the Ministerial Alliance/College of Ordained Elders for the State of Illinois, Midwest Regional Administrator for the Ministerial Alliance/College of Ordained Elders and District Administrator for the Elijah District in the Full Gospel Baptist Church Fellowship. She is also the Director of the Health Ministry where she serves under Illinois State Bishop James A. Wills Sr., the pastor of the Love Fellowship Christian Church. Where she is loving her church family and others to life.

Elder McClendon has been a part of RHEMA Ministries since 2013 and is a founding member of ADOR.

Elder McClendon is also a Mary Kay Beauty Consultant as well as works in Human Resources and Accessing Community Employment for Prairieland Service Coordination, Inc. These positions allow her to reach out to many communities with the freedom to be a Christian witness; Empowering growth, empowering the freedom to share Christ, and empowered through all the Lord continues to bless her with as she keeps moving forward in Christ. She is a change agent for the Lord and she and her family have a passion to win disciples for Christ wherever they go.

Elder McClendon resides in Decatur, Illinois.