

Sister Sabrina Garner

Sister Sabrina Garner was born and raised in Chattanooga, Tennessee. She attended college at Memphis State University, currently known as University of Memphis.

Sister Garner dedicated her life to the Lord at the age of 9 at 2nd Missionary Baptist Church in Chattanooga where she served in the choir and on the usher board. She also loved to play softball.

In 1991, Sister Garner moved to Chicago, where she united with Grace Baptist Church and served in the children's ministry. Additionally, she was the choreographer for the Praise Dance Ministry.

In 2006 Sister Garner moved to Dallas, Texas. She joined the 1st Baptist Church of Frisco, where she served in the youth ministry, facilitated a life group of teenaged mothers, worked in the kitchen, and assisted with day to day operations on a voluntary basis.

Sister Garner is a gifted leader of the ADOR Ministry. In 2020, Sister Garner had a vision to implement and facilitate a monthly uniTy and Talk forum with her ADOR age sisters. The goal of this forum was to love and encourage each other through the discussion of things on their heart. This forum is conducted via the ZOOM tool every second Tuesday of the month. The forum is known as “T and Talk.”

Sister Garner has one daughter, Bri'a, resides in Frisco, Texas and is a manager in the hotel industry.
